NOTICE

Seats have been allotted and details are available on the website. The allotted candidates are required to deposit balance fee at PNB branches latest by 02.09.2008 and report at college latest by 03.09.2008 (5:00 pm). If any allotted candidate does not report at the college, his seat will be considered as vacant.
If candidate faces any problem in reporting at college, Immediately fax the details to RMAT control room 0744-2473909.

SECOND COUNSELING

1. The candidates, willing to participate in 2nd counseling are required to visit the website <http://rtuadmissions.nic.in> again.
2. The candidates are required to fill fresh choices in 2nd counseling. The choices filled in the 1st counseling will not be considered for the allotment in 2nd counseling.
3. During the allotment process of second counseling, many new vacant seats may be created as candidates will be moving to newly allotted institute and leaving their earlier allotted seat. It is therefore advised to also fill the choices of the colleges whose vacant seats are shown as NIL.
4. In case, candidate wants to change the allotted college in the first counseling, they are still advised to deposit the balance fee and report to the allotted college, and then take part in second counseling. It will ensure that their earlier allotted seat is retained in case no seat is allotted in second counseling process.
5. Merely taking part in second counseling will not vacate your seat. The seat allotted in first counseling will be vacated only if any new seat is allotted in second counseling. The earlier allotted seat through first counseling will automatically be vacated and will be offered to another candidate. In case of new allotment, you will have no claim on earlier allotted seat.
6. In case of change of college in second counseling, the fee deposited by the candidate shall be transferred to the new college.
7. Eligibility for second counseling: All RMAT appeared candidates are eligible to appear in second counseling by depositing the registration fee as below (From 05-09-2008).
