- iii) Drop out/left out seats created due to candidates canceling the admission in the college after reporting. The list of drop out seats is the sole responsibility of the concerned college. Any legal disputes regarding the drop out seats are the sole responsibility of the concerned college.
 - iv) Additional seats available for admission by Govt order dated 18.11.2008 (provided they have the AICTE approval for the session 2008-2009).
- b) The college shall first allow internal sliding (see para 6g) against the vacant seats and then after sliding, vacant seats afresh shall be declared and advertised and filled through direct admission as per eligibility order as given in para 1 and eligibility conditions described in the information brochure of RPET-2008.
- c) Any legal dispute in relation to admission to a particular candidate against a particular vacancy or total number of vacancies shall be the responsibility of the college only and RPET-2008 coordinator or RPET-2008 coordination committee is not responsible in any manner whatsoever for the admission of a candidate through direct admission.

3. RULES FOR TFWS, KM CATEGORY & OTHER CATEGORIES:-

- a) Candidates through the process of direct admissions are not entitled for seats under TFWS.
- b) If a candidate gets admissions in 1st/2nd counseling in TFWS and he/she opts for admission under direct admission to Non TFWS seat then vacancy created in TFWS shall be filled by RPET-2008 appeared candidates already admitted through 1st and 2nd counseling of RPET-2008 according to their RPET rank and eligibility for TFWS scheme.
- c) The vacancy of Kashmiri Migrants category will not be filled up through direct admission.
- d) In Govt. Colleges the vacant seats belonging to particular category shall be filled among the candidates having same category. For example, if a SC seat is vacant that shall be filled up from SC candidates only and not from General/OBC or any other category if the candidate of that particular category is not available, it can be filled up by general category.
